Activity Reflective Writing

Begin with the line:

Wearing a mask to play a fun game on that day turned out to be a life – saving activity.

In your writing:

- Include a plan that has basic details of your writing.
- Include at least 3 ideas.
- Begin with an introduction that will be attention-grabbing.
- The content could describe the fun games with your friends, how it became a life-saver and what the take-home message was for you all.
- The above point will highlight your ability to look deeper by taking into consideration the situation around you.
- The conclusion could bring together all the points and everyone’s learning experience.
