

→ Attempt the activity given below in your Writing Book.

Activity

Reflective Writing

Begin with the line:

I wondered how I would talk to my parents about assisting them in supporting the family with all that was happening around us.

In your writing:

- Include a plan that has basic details of your writing.
- Include at least 3 ideas.
- Begin with an introduction that will be attention-grabbing.
- The content could follow the pattern as to how you approached them, what you wanted to help with and how you intended to do that.
- The above point will highlight your ability to handle and assist in situations.
- The conclusion could bring together all the points and your learning experience.

THE END