Activity

Reflective Writing

Write about the experience of the day you engaged in online home learning with your classmates.

In your writing:

- Include a plan that has basic details of your writing.
- Include at least 3 ideas.
- Begin with an introduction that will be attention-grabbing.
- The content could describe home learning through an online platform taken by your school and the experience associated with it with your classmates.
- The above point will highlight your ability to adopt practices that may be new but are necessary for continuity of learning.
- The conclusion could bring together all the points and your learning experience.
